437 and trusts created pursuant to a judgment or decree that requires the trust to be administered in 438 the manner of an express trust.

491 diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the 492 employee having responsibility to act for the trust and there is reasonable compliance with the

493 routines. Reasonable diligence does not require an employee of the organization to communicate

The common law of trusts and principles of equity shall supplement this chapter, except to the extent modified by this chapter or any other general or special law.

Section 107. [Reserved]

Section 108. Principal place of administration

(a) Without precluding other means for establishing a sufficient connection with the designated jurisdiction, terms of a trust designating the principal place of administration shall be valid and controlling if:

(1) a trustee's principal place of business is located in, or a trustee is a resident of, the designated jurisdiction; or

(2) all or part of the administration occurs in the designated jurisdiction.

(b) Without precluding the right of a court to order, approve or disapprove a transfer, the trustee may, but has no affirmative duty to, transfer the trust's principal place of administration to another state or to a jurisdiction outside of the United States.

(c) The trustee shall notify the qualified beneficiaries of a proposed transfer of a trust's principal place of administration not less than 60 days before initiating the transfer. The notice of proposed transfer shall include:

Section 109. Methods and waiver of notice

(a) Notice to a person under this chapter, or the sending of a document to a person under this chapter, shall be accomplished in a manner reasonably suitable under the circumstances and likely to result in receipt of the notice or document. Permissible methods of notice or for sending a document shall include first-class mail, personal delivery or delivery to the person's last known place of residence or place of business.

(b) Notice required under this chapter, or a document required to be sent under this chapter, need not be provided to a person whose identity or location is unknown to and not reasonably ascertainable by the trustee.

(c) Notice under this chapter, or the sending of a document under this chapter, may be waived by the person to be notified or sent the document.

(d) Notice of a judicial proceeding, authorized by this chapter to be brought by petition in the probate and family court department of the trial court, shall be given as provided in section 1-401 of chapter 190B. Notice of any other judicial proceeding shall be given as provided in the applicable procedural rules.

Section 110. Others treated as qualified beneficiaries

(b) A charitable organization expressly designated to receive distributions under the terms of a charitable trust shall have the rights of a qualified beneficiary under this chapter if, on the date the charitable organization's qualification is being determined, the charitable organization:

(1) is a distributee or permissible distributee of trust income or principal; or

(2) would be a distributee or permissible distributee of trust income or principal if the trust terminated on that date.

(c) A person appointed to enforce a trust created for the care of an animal or another non-charitable purpose, as provided in sections 408 and 409, shall have the rights of a qualified beneficiary under this chapter.

Section 111. Non-judicial settlement agreements

(a) For purposes of this section, “interested persons” shall mean persons whose consent would be required in order to achieve a binding settlement were the settlement to be approved by the court.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), interested persons may enter into a binding non-judicial settlement agreement with respect to any matter involving a trust.

(c) A non-judicial settlement agreement shall be valid only to the extent it does not violate a material purpose of the trust and includes terms and conditions that could be properly approved by the court under this chapter or other applicable law.

(d) Matters that may be resolved by a non-judicial settlement agreement shall include:

(1) the interpretation or construction of the terms of a trust;

(2) the approval of a trustee’s report or accounting;

(6) liability of a trustee for an action relating to the trust.

(e) Any interested person may request that the court approve a non-judicial settlement agreement to determine whether the representation, as provided in article 3, was adequate and to determine whether the agreement contains terms and conditions the court could have properly approved.

Section 112. Rules of construction

The rules of construction that apply in the commonwealth to the interpretation of and disposition of property by will shall also apply, as appropriate, to the interpretation of the terms of a revocable trust and the disposition of the trust property. For the purposes of this section, a "revocable trust" shall mean a trust that is: (1) revocable by the settlor until the time of the settlor's death; (2) created or amended by the settlor after the effective date of this chapter; and (3) was intended to dispose of the settlor's property at death, whether under will or otherwise and whether the trust was funded at the time of the settlor's death.

Section 113. Qualification of foreign trustee

A foreign corporate trustee shall qualify as a foreign corporation doing business in the commonwealth if it maintains the principal place of administration of any trust within the commonwealth. A foreign co-trustee shall not be required to qualify in the commonwealth solely because its co-trustee maintains the principal place of administration in the commonwealth. Unless otherwise doing business in the commonwealth, local qualification by a foreign trustee, corporate or individual, shall not be required for the trustee to receive distribution from a local estate, to hold, invest in, manage or acquire property located in the commonwealth or to maintain litigation. Nothing in this section shall affect a determination of what other acts require qualification as doing business in the commonwealth.

ARTICLE 2

JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

Section 201. Role of court in administration of trust

(a) The court may intervene in the administration of a trust to the extent its jurisdiction is invoked by an interested person or as provided by law.

(b) A trust shall not be subject to continuing judicial supervision unless ordered by the court.

(c) A judicial proceeding involving a trust may relate to any matter involving the trust's administration, including a request for instructions and an action to declare rights.

(d) A proceeding brought under this chapter in the probate and family court department of the trial court to appoint or remove a trustee, to approve the resignation of a trustee, to review and settle accounts of a trustee or concerning any other matter relating to the administration of a trust may be initiated by filing a petition and giving notice to interested parties, as provided in section 109. A decree or judgment shall be valid only to those who are given notice of the proceeding.

Section 202. Jurisdiction over trustee and beneficiary

(a) By accepting the trusteeship of a trust having its principal place of administration in the commonwealth or by moving the principal place of administration to the commonwealth, the trustee submits personally to the jurisdiction of the courts of the commonwealth regarding any matter involving the trust.

(b) With respect to their interests in the trust, the beneficiaries of a trust with its principal place of administration in the commonwealth shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the commonwealth regarding any matter involving the trust. By accepting a distribution from such a trust, the recipient submits personally to the jurisdiction of the courts of the commonwealth regarding any matter involving the trust.

(c) This section shall not preclude other methods of obtaining jurisdiction over a trustee, beneficiary or other person receiving property from the trust.

Section 203. Trust proceedings; dismissal of matters relating to foreign trusts

The court shall not over the objection of a party, entertain proceedings under section 201 involving a trust registered or having its principal place of administration in another state, unless:

(1) all appropriate parties could not be bound by litigation in the courts of the state where the trust is registered or has its principal place of administration; or (2) the interests of justice otherwise would seriously be impaired. The court may condition a stay or dismissal of a proceeding under this section on the consent of a party to submit to the jurisdiction of the state in which the trust is registered or has its principal place of administration or the court may grant a continuance or enter any other appropriate order.

Section 204. Venue

A trust shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the probate and family court department of the trial court of the commonwealth in the county where its principal place of administration is located. The principal place of administration of a testamentary trust shall be deemed to be the location of the court of the commonwealth in which the will creating the trust was granted informal or formal probate. Unless otherwise designated in the trust instrument, the principal place of administration of an inter vivos trust shall be the trustee's usual place of business where the records pertaining to the trust are kept or at the trustee's residence if the trustee has no such place of business. In the case of co-trustees, the principal place of administration, if not otherwise designated in the trust instrument, shall be: (1) the usual place of business of the corporate trustee if there is but 1 corporate co-trustee; (2) the usual place of business or residence of the individual trustee who is a professional fiduciary if there is but 1 such person and no corporate co-trustee; or (3) the usual place of business or residence of any of the co-trustees as agreed upon by them.

Section 205. Petition for transfers of trust property the disposition of which depends upon the death of an absentee

(a) If a trustee holds trust property the disposition of which depends upon the death of an absentee whose death has not been determined, the trustee, or any person who would be interested in the trust property if the absentee were dead may on or after the day 5 years after the date of the absentee's disappearance petition the court having jurisdiction of the trust for an order that the trust property be disposed of to the persons it would have been distributed to under the trust if the absentee had died on that day.

(b) The court may direct the petitioner to report the results of a reasonably diligent search for the absentee in any manner that may seem advisable, including any or all of the following methods:

(1) by inserting in a periodical of general circulation a notice requesting information from any person having knowledge of the whereabouts of the absentee;

(2) by notifying law enforcement officials, public welfare agencies and registers of deaths in appropriate locations of the disappearance of the absentee; or

(3) by engaging the services of an investigator.

The costs of any search so directed shall be paid from the trust property.

(c) After a search described in subsection (b) has been completed to the satisfaction of the court, notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given as provided in section 1-401 of chapter 190B.

(d) If after the hearing the court finds that the facts warrant a presumption of death, the court shall enter an appropriate order of disposition of the trust property and any undistributed net income.

ARTICLE 3

REPRESENTATION

Section 301. Representation: basic effect

(a) Notice to a person who may represent and bind another person under this article shall have the same effect as if notice were given directly to the other person.

(b) The consent of a person who may represent and bind another person under this article shall be binding on the person represented unless the person represented objects to the representation before the consent becomes effective.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in section 602, a person who, under this article, may represent a settlor who lacks capacity may receive notice and give binding consent on the settlor's behalf.

(d) A settlor may not represent and bind a beneficiary under this article with respect to the termination or modification of a trust under subsection (a) of section 411.

Section 302. Representation by holder of general testamentary power of appointment

To the extent there is no conflict of interest between the holder of a general testamentary power of appointment and the persons represented with respect to the particular question or dispute, the holder may represent and bind persons whose interests, as permissible appointees, takers in default or otherwise, are subject to the power.

Section 303. Representation by fiduciaries and parents

To the extent there is no conflict of interest between the representative and the person represented or among those being represented with respect to a particular question or dispute:

(1) a conservator may represent and bind the estate that the conservator controls;

(2) a guardian may represent and bind the ward or protected person if a conservator has not been appointed;

(3) an agent having authority to act with respect to the particular question or dispute may represent and bind the principal;

(4) a trustee may represent and bind the beneficiaries of the trust;

(5) a personal representative of a decedent's estate may represent and bind persons interested in the estate; and

(6) a parent may represent and bind the parent's minor or unborn child if a conservator or guardian for the child has not been appointed.

Section 304. Representation by person having substantially identical interest

Unless otherwise represented, a minor, incapacitated or unborn individual or a person whose identity or location is unknown and not reasonably ascertainable, may be represented by and bound by another having a substantially identical interest with respect to the particular question or dispute, but only to the extent there is no conflict of interest between the representative and the person represented.

Section 305. Appointment of guardian ad litem

(a) If the court determines that an interest is not represented under this article or that the otherwise available representation might be inadequate, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem to receive notice, give consent and otherwise represent, bind and act on behalf of a minor, incapacitated or unborn individual or a person whose identity or location is unknown. A guardian ad litem may be appointed to represent several persons or interests.

(b) A guardian ad litem may act on behalf of the individual represented with respect to any matter arising under this chapter, whether or not a judicial proceeding concerning the trust is pending.

(c) In making decisions, a guardian ad litem may consider general benefit accruing to the living members of the individual's family.

ARTICLE 4

CREATION, VALIDITY, MODIFICATION AND TERMINATION OF TRUST

Section 401. Methods of creating trust

A trust may be created by:

(1) transfer of property to another person as trustee during the settlor's lifetime or by will or other disposition taking effect upon the settlor's death;

(2) declaration by the owner of property that the owner holds identifiable property as trustee; or

(3) exercise of a power of appointment in favor of a trustee.

Section 402. Requirements for creation

(a) A trust shall be created only if:

(1) the settlor has capacity to create a trust;

(2) the settlor indicates an intention to create the trust;

(3) the trust has a definite beneficiary or is:

- 751 (A) a charitable trust;
- 752 (B) a trust for the care of an animal, as provided in section 408; or
- 753 (C) a trust for a non-charitable purpose, as provided in section 409;
- 754 (4) the trustee has duties to perform; and
- 755 (5) the same person is not the sole trustee and sole beneficiary.

756 (b) A beneficiary shall be definite if the beneficiary can be ascertained now or in the 757 future, subject to any applicable rule against perpetuities.

758 (c) A power in a trustee to select a beneficiary from an indefinite class shall be valid. If 759 the power is not exercised within a reasonable time, the power shall fail and the property subject 760 to the power shall pass to the persons who would have taken the property had the power not been 761 conferred.

762 Section 403. Trusts created in other jurisdictions

763 A trust not created by will shall be validly created if its creation complies with the law of 764 the jurisdiction in which the trust instrument was executed or the law of the jurisdiction in which,
765 at the time of creation:

- 766 (1) the settlor was domiciled, had a place of abode or was a national;
- 767 (2) a trustee was domiciled or had a place of business; or
- 768 (3) any trust property was located.

769 Section 404. Trust purposes

770 A trust may be created only to the extent its purposes are lawful and not contrary to 771 public policy.

772 Section 405. Charitable purposes; enforcement

773 (a) A charitable trust may be created for the relief of poverty, the advancement of 774 education or religion, the promotion of health, governmental or municipal purposes or other 775 purposes which are beneficial to the community.

776 (b) If the terms of a charitable trust do not indicate a particular charitable purpose or 777 beneficiary and do not provide a method to select such a purpose or beneficiary, the court may 778 select 1 or more charitable purposes or beneficiaries. The selection shall be consistent with the 779 settlor's intention to the extent it can be ascertained.

780 (c) The settlor of a charitable trust may maintain a proceeding to enforce the trust.

781 Section 406. Creation of trust induced by fraud, duress or undue influence

782 A trust shall be void to the extent its creation was induced by fraud, duress or undue 783 influence.

784 Section 407. Evidence of oral trust

785 Except as required by statute, a trust need not be evidenced by a trust instrument. The 786 creation of an oral trust and its terms shall be established by clear and convincing evidence.

787 Section 408. Trust for care of an animal

788 (a) A trust for the care of animals alive during the settlor's lifetime shall be valid. Unless 789 the trust instrument provides for an earlier termination, the trust shall terminate upon the death of the animal or, if the trust was created to provide for the care of more than 1 animal alive during the settlor's lifetime, upon the death of last surviving animal.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly provided in the trust instrument, no portion of the principal or income shall be converted to the use of the trustee, other than reasonable trustee fees and expenses of administration, or to any use other than for the benefit of covered animals.

(c) A court may reduce the amount of property held by the trust if it determines that the amount substantially exceeds the amount required for the intended use and the court finds that there will be no substantial adverse impact in the care, maintenance, health or appearance of the covered animal. The amount of the reduction shall pass as unexpended trust property in accordance with subsection (d).

(d) Upon reduction or termination, the trustee shall transfer the unexpended trust property in the following order:

(1) as directed in the trust instrument;

(2) to the settlor, if living;

(3) if the trust was created in a nonresiduary clause in the transferor's will or in a codicil to the transferor's will, under the residuary clause in the transferor's will or codicil; or

(4) to the settlor's heirs in accordance with chapter 190B.

(e) If a trustee is not designated by the trust instrument or no designated trustee is willing or able to serve, the court shall name a trustee. The court may order the transfer of the property to another trustee if the transfer is necessary to ensure that the intended use is carried out. The court may also make other orders and determinations as the court deems advisable to carry out the intent of the settlor and the intended use of the trust.

(f) The intended use of the principal or income may be enforced by an individual designated for that purpose in the trust instrument, by the person having custody of an animal for which care is provided by the trust instrument, by a remainder beneficiary or by an individual appointed by the court upon application of an individual or charitable organization.

(g) The settlor or other custodian of an animal for whose benefit a trust was created may transfer custody of the animal to the trustee at or subsequent to the creation of the trust.

(h) Any trust created under this section shall be subject to sections 2-901 to 2-906, inclusive, of chapter 190B, and the common law rule against perpetuities; provided, however, that the life or lives in being shall be measured based on the animal or animals alive at the time of the settlor's death or when the trust becomes irrevocable. The measuring lives shall be those of the beneficiary animals, not human lives.

Section 409. Non-charitable trust without ascertainable beneficiary.

Except as otherwise provided in section 408, or by another general or special law, the following rules shall apply:

(1) A trust may be created for a non-charitable purpose without a definite or definitely ascertainable beneficiary or for a non-charitable but otherwise valid purpose to be selected by the trustee.

(2) A trust authorized by this section may be enforced by a person appointed in the terms of the trust or, if no person is so appointed, by a person appointed by the court.

(3) Property of a trust authorized by this section may be applied only to its intended use, except to the extent the court determines that the value of the trust property exceeds the amount required for the intended use. Property not required for the intended use shall be distributed to the settlor, if then living, otherwise to the settlor's successors in interest, unless the terms of the trust provide otherwise.

Section 410. Modification or termination of trust; proceedings for approval or disapproval

(a) In addition to the methods of termination prescribed by sections 411 to 414, inclusive, a trust shall terminate if it is revoked or expires under its terms, no purpose of the trust remains to be achieved or the purposes of the trust have become unlawful, contrary to public policy or impossible to achieve.

(b) A proceeding to approve or disapprove a proposed modification or termination under sections 411 to 416, inclusive, or a trust combination or division under section 417, may be commenced by a trustee or beneficiary and a proceeding to approve or disapprove a proposed modification or termination under section 411 may be commenced by the settlor.

Section 411. Modification or termination of non-charitable irrevocable trust by consent

(a) If, upon petition, the court finds that the settlor and all beneficiaries consent to the modification or termination of a non-charitable irrevocable trust, the court may approve the modification or termination even if the modification or termination is inconsistent with a material purpose of the trust.

(b) A non-charitable irrevocable trust may be terminated upon consent of all of the beneficiaries if the court concludes that continuance of the trust is not necessary to achieve any material purpose of the trust. A non-charitable irrevocable trust may be modified upon consent of all of the beneficiaries if the court concludes that modification is not inconsistent with a material purpose of the trust.

(c) If not all of the beneficiaries consent to a proposed modification or termination of the trust under subsection (a) or (b), the modification or termination may be approved by the court if the court is satisfied that:

(1) if all of the beneficiaries had consented, the trust could have been modified or terminated under this section; and

(2) the interests of a beneficiary who does not consent will be adequately protected.

Section 412. Modification or termination because of unanticipated circumstances or inability to administer trust effectively

(a) The court may modify the administrative or dispositive terms of a trust or terminate the trust if, because of circumstances not anticipated by the settlor, modification or termination will further the purposes of the trust. To the extent practicable, the modification shall be made in accordance with the settlor's probable intent.

(b) The court may modify the administrative terms of a trust if continuation of the trust on its existing terms would be impracticable or wasteful or impair the trust's administration.

Section 413. [Reserved]

872 Section 414. Modification or termination of uneconomic trust

873 (a) After notice to the qualified beneficiaries, the trustee of a trust consisting of trust
874 property having a total value of less than $200,000 may terminate the trust if the trustee
875 concludes that the value of the trust property is insufficient to justify the cost of administration.

876 (b) The court may modify or terminate a trust or remove the trustee and appoint a 877 different trustee if it determines that the value of the trust property is insufficient to justify the 878 cost of administration.

879 (c) Upon termination of a trust under this section, the trustee shall distribute the trust
880 property in a manner consistent with the purposes of the trust.

881 (d) This section shall not apply to an easement for conservation or preservation.

882 (e) Action may be taken under this section regardless of any spendthrift or similar 883 protective provision.

884 Section 415. Reformation to correct mistakes

885 The court may reform the terms of a trust, even if unambiguous, to conform the terms to 886 the settlor's intention if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence that the settlor's intent or 887 the terms of the trust were affected by a mistake of fact or law, whether in expression or 888 inducement.

889 Section 416. [Reserved]

890 Section 417. Combination and division of trusts

After notice to the qualified beneficiaries, a trustee may combine 2 or more trusts into a single trust or divide a trust into 2 or more separate trusts, if the result does not impair the rights of any beneficiary or adversely affect achievement of the purposes of the trusts.

CREDITOR'S CLAIMS; SPENDTHRIFT AND DISCRETIONARY TRUSTS

Section 501. Rights of beneficiary's creditor or assignee

To the extent a beneficiary's interest is not subject to a spendthrift provision, the court may authorize a creditor or assignee of the beneficiary to reach the beneficiary's interest by attachment of present or future distributions to or for the benefit of the beneficiary or other means. The court may limit the award to such relief as is appropriate under the circumstances.

Section 502. Spendthrift provision

(a) A spendthrift provision shall be valid only if it restrains both voluntary and involuntary transfer of a beneficiary's interest.

(b) A term of a trust providing that the interest of a beneficiary is held subject to a "spendthrift trust," or words of similar import, shall be sufficient to restrain both voluntary and involuntary transfer of the beneficiary's interest.

(c) A beneficiary may not transfer an interest in a trust in violation of a valid spendthrift provision and, except as otherwise provided in this article, a creditor or assignee of the beneficiary may not reach the interest or a distribution by the trustee before its receipt by the beneficiary.

911 Section 503. [Reserved]

912 Section 504. [Reserved]

913 Section 505. Creditor's claim against settlor

914 (a) Whether or not a trust contains a spendthrift provision, the following rules shall 915 apply:

916 (1) During the lifetime of the settlor, the property of a revocable trust shall be 917 subject to claims of the settlor's creditors.

918 (2) With respect to an irrevocable trust, a creditor or assignee of the settlor may 919 reach the maximum amount that can be distributed to or for the settlor's benefit and, if a trust has 920 more than 1 settlor, the amount the creditor or assignee of a particular settlor may reach may not 921 exceed the settlor's interest in the portion of the trust attributable to that settlor's contribution.
922 Trust property shall not be considered distributable to or for the settlor's benefit solely because 923 the trustee has the discretion under the terms of the trust to reimburse the settlor for any tax on 924 trust income or capital gain that is payable by the settlor under the law imposing such tax; no
925 creditor or assignee of the settlor of an irrevocable trust shall be entitled to reach any trust
926 property based on the discretionary authority described in this sentence.

927 (3) After the death of a settlor, and subject to the settlor's right to direct the 928 source from which liabilities will be paid, the property of a trust that was revocable at the 929 settlor's death shall be subject to claims of the settlor's creditors, the expenses of the settlor's 930 funeral and disposal of remains and statutory allowances to a surviving spouse and children to the extent the settlor's probate estate is inadequate to satisfy those claims, expenses and allowances.

Section 506. Overdue distribution

(a) In this section, "mandatory distribution" shall mean a distribution of income or principal which the trustee is required to make to a beneficiary under the terms of the trust, including a distribution upon termination of the trust. "Mandatory distribution" shall not include a distribution subject to the exercise of the trustee's discretion even if: (1) the discretion is expressed in the form of a standard of distribution; or (2) the terms of the trust authorizing a distribution couple language of discretion with language of direction.

(b) Whether or not a trust contains a spendthrift provision, a creditor or assignee of a beneficiary may reach a mandatory distribution of income or principal, including a distribution upon termination of the trust, if the trustee has not made the distribution to the beneficiary within a reasonable time after the designated distribution date.

Section 507. Personal obligations of trustee

Trust property shall not be subject to personal obligations of the trustee, even if the trustee becomes insolvent or bankrupt.

ARTICLE 6

REVOCABLE TRUSTS

Section 601. [Reserved]

Section 602. Revocation or amendment of revocable trust

(a) Unless the terms of a trust expressly provide that the trust is irrevocable, the settlor may revoke or amend the trust.

(b) If a revocable trust is created or funded by more than 1 settlor:

(1) to the extent the trust consists of community property, the trust may be revoked by either spouse acting alone but may be amended only by joint action of both spouses;

(2) to the extent the trust consists of property other than community property, each settlor may revoke or amend the trust with regard to the portion of the trust property attributable to that settlor's contribution; and

(3) upon the revocation or amendment of the trust by fewer than all of the settlors, the trustee shall promptly notify the other settlors of the revocation or amendment.

(c) The settlor may revoke or amend a revocable trust:

(1) by complying with a method provided in the terms of the trust; or

(2) if the terms of the trust do not provide a method, by any method manifesting clear and convincing evidence of the settlor's intent.

(d) Upon revocation of a revocable trust, the trustee shall deliver the trust property as the settlor directs.

(e) A settlor's powers with respect to revocation, amendment or distribution of trust property may be exercised by an agent under a power of attorney only to the extent expressly authorized by the terms of the trust and the power.

(f) A trustee who does not know that a trust has been revoked or amended shall not be liable to the settlor or settlor's successors in interest for distributions made and other actions taken on the assumption that the trust had not been amended or revoked.

Section 603. Settlor's powers; powers of withdrawal

(a) While a trust is revocable and the settlor has capacity to revoke the trust, rights of the beneficiaries shall be subject to the control of the settlor and the duties of the trustee shall be owed exclusively to the settlor.

(b) During the period the power may be exercised, the holder of a non-lapsing power of withdrawal shall be treated, for purposes of this section, as if the holder of the non-lapsing power of withdrawal were the settlor of a revocable trust to the extent of the property subject to the power.

Section 604. Limitation on action contesting validity of revocable trust; distribution of trust property

(a) A person may commence a judicial proceeding to contest the validity of a trust that was revocable at the settlor's death within the earlier of:

(1) 1 year after the settlor's death; or

(2) 60 days after the trustee sent the person a copy of the trust instrument and a notice informing the person of the trust's existence, the trustee's name and address and the time allowed for commencing a proceeding.

(b) Upon the death of the settlor of a trust that was revocable at the settlor's death, the trustee may proceed to distribute the trust property in accordance with the terms of the trust. The trustee shall not be subject to liability for doing so unless:

(1) the trustee knows of a pending judicial proceeding contesting the validity of the trust; or

(2) a potential contestant has notified the trustee of a possible judicial proceeding to contest the trust and a judicial proceeding is commenced within 60 days after the contestant sent the notification.

(c) A beneficiary of a trust that is determined to have been invalid shall be liable to return any distribution received.

ARTICLE 7

OFFICE OF TRUSTEE

Section 701. Accepting or declining trusteeship

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a person designated as trustee shall accept the trusteeship:

(1) by substantially complying with a method of acceptance provided in the terms of the trust; or

(2) if the terms of the trust do not provide a method or the method provided in the terms is not expressly made exclusive, by accepting delivery of the trust property, exercising powers or performing duties as trustee or otherwise indicating acceptance of the trusteeship.

(b) A person designated as trustee who has not yet accepted the trusteeship may reject the trusteeship. A designated trustee who does not accept the trusteeship within a reasonable time after knowing of the designation shall be deemed to have rejected the trusteeship.

(c) A person designated as trustee without accepting the trusteeship may:

(1) act to preserve the trust property if, within a reasonable time after acting, the person sends a rejection of the trusteeship to the settlor or, if the settlor is dead or lacks capacity, to a qualified beneficiary; and

(2) inspect or investigate trust property to determine potential liability under environmental or other law or for any other purpose.

Section 702. Duty to provide bond

In the case of a testamentary trust, a trustee shall furnish a bond for the performance of the trustee's fiduciary duties and a surety shall be required unless waived by the terms of the trust or found by the probate and family court department of the trial court to be not necessary to protect the interests of the beneficiaries. On petition of the trustee or other interested person the probate court may excuse a requirement of bond, reduce the amount of the bond, release the surety or permit the substitution of another bond with the same or different sureties. If the instrument creating the trust exempts the trustee from furnishing a bond or limits the amount thereof, or the probate court determines that the bond is insufficient, the probate court may, if it concludes that a bond is necessary or that a bond of a larger amount is necessary, require the furnishing of such bond. The terms and conditions of the bond shall be as set forth in section 3-606 of chapter 190B.

1030 Section 703. Co-trustees

1031 (a) Co-trustees who are unable to reach a unanimous decision may act by majority 1032 decision.

1033 (b) If a vacancy occurs in a co-trusteeship, the remaining co-trustees may act for the 1034 trust.

1035 (c) A co-trustee shall participate in the performance of a trustee's function unless the co-
1036 trustee is unavailable to perform the function because of absence, illness, disqualification under 1037 other laws or other temporary incapacity or the co-trustee has properly delegated the 1038 performance of the function to another trustee.

1039 (d) If a co-trustee is unavailable to perform duties because of absence, illness,
1040 disqualification under other laws or other temporary incapacity and prompt action is necessary to
1041 achieve the purposes of the trust or to avoid injury to the trust property, the remaining co-trustee
1042 or a majority of the remaining co-trustees may act for the trust.

1043 (e) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (f), a trustee who does not join in an 1044 action of another trustee shall not be liable for the action.

1045 (f) Each trustee shall exercise reasonable care to:

1046 (1) prevent a co-trustee from committing a breach of trust; and 1047 (2) compel a co-trustee to redress a breach of trust.

1048 Section 704. Vacancy in trusteeship; appointment of successor

1049 (a) A vacancy in a trusteeship shall occur if:

- 1050 (1) a person designated as trustee rejects the trusteeship;
- 1051 (2) a person designated as trustee cannot be identified or does not exist;
- 1052 (3) a trustee resigns;
- 1053 (4) a trustee is disqualified or removed;
- 1054 (5) a trustee dies; or
- 1055 (6) a guardian or conservator is appointed for an individual serving as trustee.

1056 (b) If 1 or more co-trustees remain in office, a vacancy in a trusteeship need not be filled.

1057 A vacancy in a trusteeship shall be filled if the trust has no remaining trustees.

1058 (c) A vacancy in a trusteeship that is required to be filled shall be filled in the following 1059 order of priority:

- 1060 (1) by a person designated by the terms of the trust to act as successor trustee;
- 1061 (2) by a person appointed by unanimous agreement of the qualified beneficiaries;
- 1062 or
- 1063 (3) by a person appointed by the court.

1064 (d) Whether or not a vacancy in a trusteeship exists or is required to be filled, the court 1065 may appoint an additional trustee or special fiduciary whenever the court considers the 1066 appointment necessary for the administration of the trust.

1067 Section 705. Resignation of trustee

1068 (a) A trustee may resign:

1069 (1) upon at least 30 days' notice to: (i) the settlor and all co-trustees of the trust,
1070 in the case of a revocable trust, and (ii) the qualified beneficiaries and all co-trustees of the trust,
1071 in the case of any other trust; or

1072 (2) with the approval of the court.

1073 (b) In approving a resignation, the court may issue orders and impose conditions
1074 reasonably necessary for the protection of the trust property.

1075 (c) Any liability of a resigning trustee or of any sureties on the trustee's bond for acts or 1076 omissions of the trustee shall not be discharged or affected by the trustee's resignation.

1077 Section 706. Removal of trustee

1078 (a) The settlor, a co-trustee or a beneficiary may request the court to remove a trustee or 1079 a trustee may be removed by the court on its own initiative.

1080 (b) The court may remove a trustee if:

1081 (1) the trustee has committed a serious breach of trust;

1082 (2) there is a lack of cooperation among co-trustees that substantially impairs the 1083 administration of the trust;

1084 (3) because of unfitness, unwillingness or persistent failure of the trustee to 1085 administer the trust effectively, the court determines that removal of the trustee best serves the 1086 interests of the beneficiaries; or

1087 (4) there has been a substantial change of circumstances or removal is requested
1088 by all of the qualified beneficiaries, the court finds that removal of the trustee best serves the

1089 interests of all of the beneficiaries and is not inconsistent with a material purpose of the trust and 1090 a suitable co-trustee or successor trustee is available.

1091 (c) Pending a final decision on a request to remove a trustee, or in lieu of or in addition
1092 to removing a trustee, the court may order such appropriate relief under subsection (b) of section
1093 1001 as may be necessary to protect the trust property or the interests of the beneficiaries.

1094 Section 707. Delivery of property by former trustee

1095 A trustee who has resigned or been removed shall proceed expeditiously to deliver the 1096 trust property within the trustee's possession to the co-trustee, successor trustee or other person
1097 entitled to it.

1098 Section 708. Compensation of trustee

1099 (a) If the terms of a trust do not specify the trustee's compensation, a trustee shall be 1100 entitled to compensation that is reasonable under the circumstances.

1101 (b) If the terms of a trust specify the trustee's compensation, the trustee shall be entitled 1102 to be compensated as specified, but the court may allow more or less compensation if:

1103 (1) the duties of the trustee are substantially different from those contemplated
1104 when the trust was created; or

1105 (2) the compensation specified by the terms of the trust would be unreasonably 1106 low or high.

1107 Section 709. Reimbursement of expenses

1108 (a) A trustee shall be entitled to be reimbursed out of the trust property, with interest as 1109 appropriate, for:

1110 (1) expenses that were properly incurred in the administration of the trust; and

1111 (2) expenses that were not properly incurred in the administration of the trust, to 1112 the extent necessary to prevent unjust enrichment of the trust.

1113 (b) An advance by the trustee of money for the protection of the trust shall give rise to a
1114 lien against trust property to secure reimbursement with reasonable interest.

1115 ARTICLE 8

1116 DUTIES AND POWERS OF TRUSTEE

1117 Section 801. Duty to administer trust

1118 Upon acceptance of a trusteeship, the trustee shall administer the trust in good faith, in 1119 accordance with its terms and purposes and the interests of the beneficiaries and in accordance 1120 with this chapter.

1121 Section 802. Duty of loyalty

1122 (a) A trustee shall administer the trust solely in the interests of the beneficiaries.

1123 (b) Subject to the rights of persons dealing with or assisting the trustee, as provided in 1124 section 1012, a sale, encumbrance or other transaction involving the investment or management 1125 of trust property entered into by the trustee for the trustee's own personal account or which is 1126 otherwise affected by a conflict between the trustee's fiduciary and personal interests shall be 1127 voidable by a beneficiary affected by the transaction unless:

1128 (1) the transaction was authorized by the terms of the trust;

1129 (2) the transaction was approved by the court;

1130 (3) the beneficiary did not commence a judicial proceeding within the time
1131 allowed by section 1005;

1132 (4) the beneficiary consented to the trustee's conduct, ratified the transaction or 1133 released the trustee in compliance with section 1009; or

1134 (5) the transaction involves a contract entered into or claim acquired by the 1135 trustee before the person became a trustee.

1136 (c) A sale, encumbrance or other transaction involving the investment or management of 1137 trust property shall be presumed to be affected by a conflict between personal and fiduciary 1138 interests if it is entered into by the trustee with:

1139 (1) the trustee's spouse;

1140 (2) the trustee's descendants, siblings, parents or their spouses;

1141 (3) an agent or attorney of the trustee; or

1142 (4) a corporation or other person or enterprise in which the trustee, or a person
1143 that owns a significant interest in the trustee, has an interest that might affect the trustee's best 1144 judgment.

1145 (d) A transaction not concerning trust property, in which the trustee engages in the 1146 trustee's individual capacity, shall be a conflict between personal and fiduciary interests if the 1147 transaction concerns an opportunity properly belonging to the trust.

1148 (e) An investment by a trustee in securities of an investment company or investment trust
1149 to which the trustee, or its affiliate, provides services in a capacity other than as trustee shall not 1150 be presumed to be affected by a conflict between personal and fiduciary interests if the 1151 investment otherwise complies with the prudent investor rule of chapter 203C. In addition to 1152 compensation for acting as trustee, the trustee may be compensated by the investment company
1153 or investment trust for providing those services out of fees charged to the trust. If the trustee 1154 receives compensation from the investment company or investment trust for providing 1155 investment advisory or investment management services, the trustee shall at least annually notify
1156 the persons entitled under section 813 to receive a copy of the trustee's annual report of the rate
1157 and method by which that compensation was determined.

1158 (f) In voting shares of stock or in exercising powers of control over similar interests in 1159 other forms of enterprise, the trustee shall act in the best interests of the beneficiaries.

1160 (g) This section shall not preclude the following transactions, if fair to the beneficiaries:

1161 (1) an agreement between a trustee and a beneficiary relating to the appointment
1162 or compensation of the trustee;

1163 (2) payment of reasonable compensation to the trustee;

1164 (3) a transaction between a trust and another trust, decedent's estate or 1165 conservatorship of which the trustee is a fiduciary or in which a beneficiary has an interest;

1166 (4) a deposit of trust money in a regulated financial service institution operated 1167 by the trustee; or

1168 (5) an advance or loan by the trustee of money to the trust for a proper trust
1169 purpose.

1170 Section 803. Impartiality

1171 If a trust has 2 or more beneficiaries, the trustee shall act impartially in investing,
1172 managing and distributing the trust property, giving due regard to the beneficiaries' respective 1173 interests.

1174 Section 804. Prudent administration

1175 A trustee shall administer the trust as a prudent person would, considering the purposes,
1176 terms and other circumstances of the trust. In satisfying this standard, the trustee shall exercise
1177 reasonable care, skill and caution.

1178 Section 805. Costs of administration

1179 In administering a trust, the trustee may incur only costs that are appropriate and 1180 reasonable in relation to the trust property, the purposes of the trust and the skills of the trustee.

1181 Section 806. Trustee's skills

1182 A trustee who has special skills or expertise, or is named trustee in reliance upon the 1183 trustee's representation that the trustee has such special skills or expertise, shall have a duty to 1184 use such special skills or expertise.

1185 Section 807. Delegation by trustee

1186 (a) A trustee may delegate duties and powers if it is prudent to do so. The trustee shall 1187 exercise reasonable care, skill and caution in:

1188 (1) selecting an agent;

1189 (2) establishing the scope and terms of the delegation, consistent with the

1190 purposes and terms of the trust; and

1191 (3) periodically reviewing the agent's actions in order to monitor the agent's

1192 performance and compliance with the terms of the delegation.

1193 (b) In performing a delegated function, an agent shall owe a duty to the trust to exercise

1194 reasonable care to comply with the terms of the delegation.

1195 (c) A trustee who complies with subsection (a) shall not be liable to the beneficiaries or 1196 to the trust for an action of the agent to whom the function was delegated.

1197 (d) By accepting a delegation of powers or duties from the trustee of a trust that is

1198 subject to the laws of the commonwealth, an agent shall submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of 1199 the commonwealth.

1200 Section 808. Powers to direct

1201 (a) While a trust is revocable, the trustee may follow a direction of the settlor that is

1202 contrary to the terms of the trust.

1203 (b) If the terms of a trust confer upon a person, other than the settlor of a revocable trust,

1204 power to direct certain actions of the trustee, the trustee shall act in accordance with an exercise

1205 of the power, unless the attempted exercise is manifestly contrary to the terms of the trust or the

1206 trustee knows the attempted exercise would constitute a serious breach of a fiduciary duty that

1207 the person holding the power owes to the beneficiaries of the trust.

1208 (c) A person who holds a power to direct is presumptively a fiduciary who is required to 1209 act in good faith with regard to the purposes of the trust and the interests of the beneficiaries.
1210 The holder of a power to direct shall be liable for any loss that results from a breach of a
1211 fiduciary duty.

1212 Section 809. Control and protection of trust property

1213 A trustee shall take reasonable steps to take control of and protect the trust property.

1214 Section 810. Recordkeeping and identification of trust property

1215 (a) A trustee shall keep adequate records of the administration of the trust.

1216 (b) A trustee shall keep trust property separate from the trustee's own property.

1217 (c) A trustee may invest as a whole, the property of 2 or more separate trusts, if the 1218 trustee maintains records clearly indicating the respective interests.

1219 Section 811. Enforcement and defense of claims

1220 A trustee shall take reasonable steps to enforce claims of the trust and to defend claims 1221 against the trust.

1222 Section 812. Collecting trust property

1223 A trustee shall take reasonable steps to compel a former trustee or other person to deliver 1224 trust property to the trustee and to redress a breach of trust known to the trustee to have been 1225 committed by a former trustee.

1226 Section 813. Duty to inform and report

1227 (a) A trustee shall keep the qualified beneficiaries of the trust reasonably informed about 1228 the administration of the trust. Unless unreasonable under the circumstances, a trustee shall 1229 promptly respond to a qualified beneficiary's request for information related to the 1230 administration of the trust.

1231 (b) Within 30 days after acceptance of the trust or the trust becomes irrevocable,
1232 whichever is later, the trustee shall inform, in writing, the qualified beneficiaries of the trustee's
1233 name and address. The information shall be delivered or sent by ordinary first class mail.

1234 (c) A trustee shall send an account to the distributees and permissible distributees of trust
1235 income or principal and to other qualified beneficiaries who request it, at least annually and at 1236 the termination of the trust. The account of trust income and principal may be formal or 1237 informal, but shall include information relating to the trust property, liabilities, receipts and 1238 disbursements, including the amount of the trustee's compensation, a listing of the trust assets
1239 and, if feasible, their respective market values.

1240 (d) A beneficiary may waive the right to a trustee's account of trust income or principal
1241 or other information otherwise required to be furnished under this section. A beneficiary, with 1242 respect to future accounts and other information, may withdraw a waiver previously given. A
1243 waiver of a trustee's account or other information shall not relieve the trustee from accountability
1244 and potential liability for matters that the account or other information would have disclosed.

1245 Section 814. Discretionary powers; tax savings

1246 (a) Notwithstanding the broad discretion granted to a trustee in the terms of the trust,
1247 including the use of such terms as "absolute", "sole" or "uncontrolled", the trustee shall exercise

1248 a discretionary power in good faith and in accordance with the terms and purposes of the trust
1249 and the interests of the beneficiaries.

1250 (b) Subject to subsection (d), and unless the terms of the trust expressly indicate that a
1251 rule in this subsection shall not apply, the following rules shall apply:

1252 (1) a person other than a settlor, who is a beneficiary and trustee of a trust, that 1253 confers on the trustee a power to make discretionary distributions to or for the trustee's personal 1254 benefit may exercise the power only in accordance with an ascertainable standard; and

1255 (2) a trustee shall not exercise a power to make discretionary distributions to 1256 satisfy a legal obligation of support that the trustee personally owes another person.

1257 (c) A power that is limited or prohibited by subsection (b) may be exercised by a
1258 majority of the remaining trustees whose exercise of the power is not so limited or prohibited. If 1259 the power of all trustees is so limited or prohibited, the court may appoint a special fiduciary
1260 with authority to exercise the power.

1261 (d) Subsection (b) shall not apply to:

1262 (1) a power held by the settlor's spouse who is the trustee of a trust for which a 1263 marital deduction was previously allowed; or

1264 (2) any trust during any period that the trust may be revoked or amended by its 1265 settlor.

1266 Section 815. General powers of trustee

1267 (a) A trustee, without authorization by the court, may exercise:

1268 (1) powers conferred by the terms of the trust; or

1269 (2) except as limited by the terms of the trust:

1270 (i) all powers over the trust property which an unmarried competent 1271 owner has over individually owned property;

1272 (ii) any other powers appropriate to achieve the proper investment, 1273 management and distribution of the trust property; and

1274 (iii) any other powers conferred by this chapter.

1275 (b) The exercise of a power shall be subject to the fiduciary duties prescribed by this
1276 article.

1277 Section 816. Specific powers of trustee

1278 Without limiting the authority conferred by section 815, a trustee may:

1279 (1) collect trust property and accept or reject additions to the trust property from a
1280 settlor or any other person;

1281 (2) acquire or sell property, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale;

1282 (3) exchange, partition or otherwise change the character of trust property;

1283 (4) deposit trust money in an account in a regulated financial service institution;

1284 (5) borrow money, with or without security, and mortgage or pledge trust property for a
1285 period within or extending beyond the duration of the trust;

1286 (6) with respect to an interest in a proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company,
1287 business trust, corporation or other form of business or enterprise, continue the business or other
1288 enterprise and take any action that may be taken by shareholders, members or property owners, 1289 including merging, dissolving or otherwise changing the form of business organization or 1290 contributing additional capital;

1291 (7) with respect to stocks or other securities, exercise the rights of an absolute owner,
1292 including the right to:

1293 (i) vote, or give proxies to vote, with or without power of substitution or enter
1294 into or continue a voting trust agreement;

1295 (ii) hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure
1296 of the trust so that title may pass by delivery;

1297 (iii) pay calls, assessments and other sums chargeable or accruing against the 1298 securities and sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights; and

1299 (iv) deposit the securities with a depository or other regulated financial service
1300 institution;

1301 (8) with respect to an interest in real property, construct or make ordinary or 1302 extraordinary repairs to, alterations to or improvements in, buildings or other structures,
1303 demolish improvements, raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings, subdivide or 1304 develop land, dedicate land to public use or grant public or private easements and make or vacate

1414 trustee for breach of trust shall be barred as to any beneficiary who has received a final account
1415 or other statement fully disclosing the matter and showing termination of the trust relationship
1416 between the trustee and the beneficiary, unless a proceeding to assert the claim is commenced
1417 within 6 months after receipt of the final account or statement. Any claim against a trustee for 1418 breach of trust shall be barred in any event and notwithstanding lack of full disclosure, against a
1419 trustee who has issued a final account or statement received by the beneficiary and has informed
1420 the beneficiary of the location and availability of records for examination by the beneficiary after

1422 it is received by the beneficiary personally or if, being a minor or disabled person, it is received 1423 by the beneficiary's representative as described in article 3.

1424 (b) Where a claim is not barred by subsection (a), a beneficiary may not commence a 1425 proceeding against a trustee for breach of trust more than 3 years after the date the beneficiary or

1427 potential claim for breach of trust.

1428 (c) If subsections (a) and (b) do not apply, a judicial proceeding against a trustee for 1429 breach of trust must be commenced within 5 years after the first to occur of:

1430 (1) the removal, resignation or death of the trustee;

1431 (2) the termination of the beneficiary's interest in the trust; or 1432 (3) the termination of the trust.

1433 Section 1006. Reliance on trust instrument

1434 A trustee who acts in reasonable reliance on the terms of the trust as expressed in the 1435 trust instrument shall not be liable to a beneficiary for a breach of trust to the extent the breach 1436 resulted from the reliance.

1437 Section 1007. Event affecting administration or distribution

1438 If the happening of an event or change of status, including, but not limited to: birth, 1439 adoption, marriage, divorce, performance of educational requirements or death affects the 1440 administration or distribution of a trust, a trustee who has exercised reasonable care to ascertain 1441 the happening of the event or change of status shall not be liable for a loss resulting from the 1442 trustee's lack of knowledge.

1443 Section 1008. Exculpation of trustee

1444 (a) A term of a trust relieving a trustee of liability for breach of trust shall be 1445 unenforceable to the extent that it:

1446 (1) relieves the trustee of liability for breach of trust committed in bad faith or 1447 with reckless indifference to the purposes of the trust or the interests of the beneficiaries; or

1448 (2) was inserted as the result of an abuse by the trustee of a fiduciary or 1449 confidential relationship to the settlor.

1450 (b) An exculpatory term drafted or caused to be drafted by the trustee may be invalid as 1451 an abuse of a fiduciary or confidential relationship unless the trustee proves that its existence and 1452 contents were adequately communicated to the settlor.

1453 Section 1009. Beneficiary's consent, release or ratification

1454 A trustee shall not be liable to a beneficiary for breach of trust if the beneficiary, while
1455 having capacity, in writing, consented to the conduct constituting the breach, released the trustee 1456 from liability for the breach or ratified the transaction constituting the breach, unless:

1457 (1) the consent, release or ratification of the beneficiary was induced by improper
1458 conduct of the trustee; or

1459 (2) at the time of the consent, release or ratification, the beneficiary did not know of the 1460 material facts relating to the breach.

1461 Section 1010. Limitation on personal liability of trustee

1462 (a) Except as otherwise provided in the contract, a trustee shall not be personally liable 1463 on a contract properly entered into in the trustee's fiduciary capacity in the course of 1464 administering the trust if the trustee, in the contract, disclosed the fiduciary capacity.

1465 (b) A trustee shall be personally liable for torts committed in the course of administering
1466 a trust or for obligations arising from ownership or control of trust property, including liability
1467 for violation of environmental law, only if the trustee is personally at fault.

1468 (c) A claim based on a contract entered into by a trustee in the trustee's fiduciary
1469 capacity, on an obligation arising from ownership or control of trust property or on a tort 1470 committed in the course of administering a trust, may be asserted in a judicial proceeding against 1471 the trustee in the trustee's fiduciary capacity, whether or not the trustee is personally liable for 1472 the claim.

1473 Section 1011. Interest as general partner

1474 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) or unless personal liability is imposed
1475 in the contract, a trustee who holds an interest as a general partner, in a general or limited
1476 partnership, shall not be personally liable on a contract entered into by the partnership after the 1477 trust's acquisition of the interest if the fiduciary capacity was disclosed in the contract or in a
1478 statement previously filed under chapter 108A or chapter 109.

1479 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a trustee who holds an interest as a
1480 general partner shall not be personally liable for torts committed by the partnership or for 1481 obligations arising from ownership or control of the interest unless the trustee is personally at 1482 fault.

1483 (c) The immunity provided by this section shall not apply if an interest in the partnership
1484 is held by the trustee in a capacity other than that of trustee or is held by the trustee's spouse or 1
1485 or more of the trustee's descendants, siblings or parents, or the spouse of any of them.

1486 (d) If the trustee of a revocable trust holds an interest as a general partner, the settlor
1487 shall be personally liable for contracts and other obligations of the partnership as if the settlor
1488 were a general partner.

1489 Section 1012. Protection of person dealing with trustee

1490 (a) A person other than a beneficiary who in good faith assists a trustee or who in good 1491 faith and for value deals with a trustee, without knowledge that the trustee is exceeding or 1492 improperly exercising the trustee's powers shall be protected from liability as if the trustee
1493 properly exercised the power.

1494 (b) A person other than a beneficiary who in good faith deals with a trustee shall not be 1495 required to inquire into the extent of the trustee's powers or the propriety of their exercise.

1496 (c) A person who in good faith delivers assets to a trustee need not ensure their proper 1497 application.

1498 (d) A person other than a beneficiary who in good faith assists a former trustee or who in 1499 good faith and for value deals with a former trustee, without knowledge that the trusteeship has 1500 terminated shall be protected from liability as if the former trustee were still a trustee.

1501 (e) Comparable protective provisions of other laws relating to commercial transactions
1502 or transfer of securities by fiduciaries shall prevail over the protection provided by this section.

1503 Section 1013. Certification of trust

1504 (a) Instead of furnishing a copy of the trust instrument to a person other than a 1505 beneficiary, the trustee may furnish to the person a certification of trust containing the following
1506 information:

1507 (1) that the trust exists and the date the trust instrument was executed;

1508 (2) the identity of the settlor;

1509 (3) the identity and address of the currently acting trustee;
1510 (4) the powers of the trustee;
1511 (5) the revocability or irrevocability of the trust and the identity of any person
1512 holding a power to revoke the trust;

1513 (6) the authority of co-trustees to sign or otherwise authenticate and whether all
1514 or less than all are required in order to exercise powers of the trustee;

1515 (7) the trust's taxpayer identification number; and

1516 (8) the manner of taking title to trust property.

1517 (b) A certification of trust may be signed or otherwise authenticated by any trustee.

1518 (c) A certification of trust shall state that the trust has not been revoked, modified or 1519 amended in any manner that would cause the representations contained in the certification of 1520 trust to be incorrect.

1521 (d) A certification of trust need not contain the dispositive terms of a trust.

1522 (e) A recipient of a certification of trust may require the trustee to furnish copies of those 1523 excerpts from the original trust instrument and later amendments which designate the trustee and 1524 confer upon the trustee the power to act in the pending transaction.

1525 (f) A person who acts in reliance upon a certification of trust without knowledge that the 1526 representations contained in the certification are incorrect shall not be liable to any person for so
1527 acting and may assume without inquiry the existence of the facts contained in the certification.

1528 Knowledge of the terms of the trust may not be inferred solely from the fact that a copy of all or 1529 part of the trust instrument is held by the person relying upon the certification.

1530 (g) A person who in good faith enters into a transaction in reliance upon a certification of 1531 trust may enforce the transaction against the trust property as if the representations contained in 1532 the certification were correct.

1533 (h) A person making a demand for the trust instrument, in addition to a certification of 1534 trust or excerpts, shall be liable for damages if the court determines that the person did not act in 1535 good faith in demanding the trust instrument.

1536 (i) This section shall not limit the right of a person to obtain a copy of the trust
1537 instrument in a judicial proceeding concerning the trust.
